

IDC Staff Instructor

The PADI IDC Staff Instructor Course is designed to provide Master Scuba Diver Trainers with the additional training necessary to staff PADI Instructor Development Programs. The course builds upon the IDC Staff Instructor Candidates experience and abilities as a dive educator while concentrating on developing evaluation and counseling skills.

PADI IDC Staff Instructors are authorized to:

Independently teach and certify PADI Assistant Instructors. Conduct IDC training segments under the direct supervision of a PADI Course Director. Evaluate and critique instructor candidate knowledge development, confined water and open water teaching presentations. Provide counseling and remedial training for instructor candidates and IDC Staff Instructor candidates. Assist with training during instructor level training programs such as PADI Specialty Instructor Training courses. Observe the orientation and closing sessions of PADI Instructor Examinations.

To enroll in an IDC Staff Instructor course you will need to be a teaching status PADI Instructor for the current year and hold a PADI Master Scuba Diver Trainer Rating. Candidates need to have a current and up to date Course Director Manual, a current and up to date Instructor Manual and current open water and confined water evaluation slates. Any of these materials can be purchased directly from PADI or from London School of Diving at reduced rates (See below).

At London School of Diving we run the IDC Staff Instructor course in two different formats.

IDC Staff £299

This is a two day training and evaluation program followed by auditing a complete IDC. Auditing the IDC allows the candidate to apply and practice evaluation skills gained during the training and evaluation program. We can tailor the training and evaluation phase to suit individual's needs but training would usually take place two days prior to one of our IDC's (See IDC Information and Schedule on our website for further information)

It is run over an evening and weekend schedule which is governed by candidate requirements. The academic and confined water sessions are conducted by one of our Course Directors at our purpose built dive centre in London. Academic modules are carried out in state of the art classrooms with the confined water sessions conducted in our on-site heated pool. There is no open water work with this format of the course.

Not included in the cost are materials, transport, entry fees to open water venues or application fee. You are expected to have all the materials required by an IDC candidate and the following:
